Council Hears Firemen Request! Votes Support Of "Sound-Light"

Mayor S. R. Lawson Monday night reported to the Town Council that excavation for the two acre sewage lagoon is almost complete.

Two members of the Appomattox Volunteer Fire Department appeared before the Council to ask for consideration of a new building to house equipment and a meeting place. C. R. (Skinney) Wooldridge and Dick Bass said they had located a piece of land the 'Bledsoe property" and that seller, S. L. Lawson, had named a reasonable price.

They said they would need a four stall building, plus upstairs area, and that one of the four stalls could be used as a "wash pit." Council requested that they obtain tentative plans and an idea of how much such a building will cost.

Mrs. W. W. Burke appeared before Council to review the work done by the RAD Centennial subcommittee and the subsequent development of Appomattox Heritage, Incorporated.

"We feel we have a unique story to tell", she said, in describing the proposed "Sound - Light" production for the Surrender Grounds. In a "Sound-Light" production, there are no live characters, she explained, and no screen to watch. "While the story is being told via tape recording, lights are turned on in various buildings, or field areas are lit to reenact historical events."

She said that a contribution by Council now would make it possible to bring Dr. Gordon Graham here to draw up plans for the production and to work "full time" on a job that has become too big for the volunteer help given thus far. Graham, she said, would act as executive director, but would be under the direct control of the board of directors of Appomattox Heritage, Inc.

Among other things being done in the "sound-light" planning, she said, is a survey of motel and hotel accomodations in a thirty mile radius.

Dr. Lawson said that successful production at the Park "will be one of the biggest boons to this town in the last 100 years."

Council voted to donate $500 to Appomattox Heritage, Inc. provided the town's attorney, George Abbitt, gives legal approval to the donation.

John Thomas Paulette and W. E. Jamerson requested town water and sewage for a drive-in short order restaurant to be constructed on a triangle of land recently purchased at the western boundary of the town bordered by routes 460 and 24.

Sidewalks in Town

Council voted to locate a firm doing concrete work to give an estimate on repairs to a section of sidewalk from Farmers National Bank to the Sanitary Barber Shop on Main Street. State Highway Dept. recommendations suggest an eight inch addition to the present sidewalk to raise it to the level of business establishments adjoining.

Council instructed Town Manager Charles Hunter to have the interceptor sewage lines run through the Appomattox - Woolridge subdivision on 460 east to the sewage lagoon instead of a prior plan to cross property lines.

Building Permits

One building permit with water and sewage was granted to Billy Conner for a home on Morton Lane.

Town revenue in May included $112 in fines arising from eight traffic cases.

Holiday Inn To Publish "Sound-Light"

Holiday Inn, the restaurant and motel organization, represented by Kenneth White, invited four members of Appomattox Heritage, Inc. to luncheon yesterday (Wednesday). Purpose, to gather information about Appomattox and the proposed "Sound Light project for possible publication in the Holiday Inn magazine, mailed out from 2500 Holiday Inn locations.

Superintendent Earle Steele, Appomattox National Historical Park, Dr. J. A. Mathews, Mrs. W. W. Burke, all of Appomattox, and Robert C. Haley, head of the Drama Dept., Lynchburg, were invited to attend.

MYF Sub.-Dist. To Meet Tues.

Mental Health Commission Calls Meeting For Monday, Emporia, Va.

The Virginia Mental Health Commission will conduct one of a series of state - wide regional public meetings in the Circuit Court Room of the Courthouse in Emporia, Virginia on June 22, 1964, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., E.D.T. The Courthouse is located on South Main Street in Emporia

The Commission was formed for the purpose of studying methods and means for the improvement of mental health services and facilities in the Commonwealth of Virginia and to determine the extent of the ability and capability of the individual communities to support these needs.

To arrive at these goals, the Commission must have expressions of need, Interests, and support from citizens, civic and professional groups, and civic leaders and authorities. The regional meetings are designed to meet this requirement.

The meeting scheduled in Emporia will concern itself with those communities and counties comprising the Fourth Congressional District. The aims of the study will, of course, be clearly outlined and statements concerning existing facilities and resources will be presented by local area personnel.

Rev. Randall Marshall will be the guest minister bringing the message each evening.

Special music will be furnished by the church choir and guests.

Rev. Omah G. Burnette, pastor of the church, extends an invitation to all friends to come and worship with us.

Mrs. W. W. Burke, chairman of the steering committee named to explore a sound-light program for Appomattox National Historical Park, told county supervisors last week that the Sound - Light project has developed into a corporation, "Appomattox Heritage, Incorporated," set up as an educational corporation.

"We are proceeding cautiously," she said, "but we feel that we have enthusiastic support both here and in many areas surrounding us." She thanked the Board for their "moral support" and then asked for a "token" appropriation in order that the Heritage Corporation might proceed to obtain further funds for the program.

Mrs. Burke said that anything "from one dollar up" would mean that the Corporation could say "Appomattox supervisors are behind this program."

The Supervisors voted to allocate $500 for the Corporation.

"It's like bu g a house", she said. "W. need an 'architect' to help us set up a contract with the Park."

She said the group hopes to get Dr. Gordon Graham back in the county to explain "Sound and Light". Dr. Graham was here in April meeting with a Southside group of business and civic leaders to discuss the possibilities of the project.

Mrs. Burke spoke of the enthusiasm of many persons who have helped set the Corporation. She told the Board that less than $75 has been spent since November that Lynchburg and Appomattox members of the committee had reached into their own pockets to set up the corporation.

In that time, she said, offers of technical assistance had come from G.E. and Westinghouse. The tape recording necessary for the Sound-Light production may be done in Lynchburg, Mrs. Burke said. And total cost for the project apparently will be "far below" the figure given earlier as an estimate for a "Sound and Light" reenactment of historical events surrounding Old Appomattox Court House.

Appomattox Heritage, Incorporated has an office set up at the Bank of Appomattox, with furniture and typewriter donated by the county School Board. Volunteer secretarial work has been used thus far, said Mrs. Burke.

Rescue Squad Requests Funds

Roger Redford, president of the Appomattox County Rescue squad appeared before the Board to ask that the Squad be mentioned in this year's budget. Said Norfleet, "We could use $500 each year at least until we get our building paid for." The Squad will need about $3,000 to complete their headquarters building, Norfleet said.

Board Chairman Otho W. Martin said that the Board is very much in sympathy with the work of the Squad, and that they would consider the request.

Watershed Project

The Board has given its approval to a work plan for the Little Falling River Watershed project.

Recording equipment for use in the Circuit Court has been ordered, Chairman Martin told the Board. He explained that $2,000 has been set aside in the budget to cover the costs of the equipment purchased as a result of General Assembly action requiring all higher courts to have either the recording equipment or a court stenographer.

The Supervisors devoted some time to the question of a new heating plant for the Court House. Upon request of Southside supervisor John Cole, the Board decided to ask a representative of a Richmond engineering firm, Hinnant, Addison, and Hinnant to be with them at the July meeting. Six thousand dollars is now in the budget for purchase of new heating equipment.

The supervisors said that a repairman had reported that the present coal furnace could no longer "be patched up." Any change in the heating plant will require a fire marshall's inspection, said supervisor Cole—possibly the construction of a separate building.

Store Sale Helps County

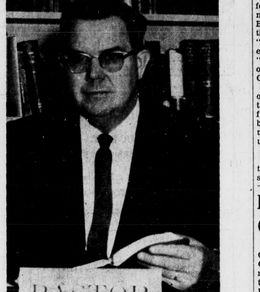
Sheriff L. L. Stanley said that purchases of canned food from the J. T. Almond store, (going out of business,) will save money for the county. He said that quantities of goods purchased there were bought at less than wholesale price.

The front of the Court House was discussed. The Board agreed that the American Legion should be consulted about the list of veterans painted on a large plaque at the entrance. They said that years of weathering had almost obliterated many of the names.

The Board, currently considering approval of a Subdivision Ordinance which involves two miles of county territory immediately adjoining the Town of Appomattox, said they consider the ordinance a "good thing."



THE REV. O. D. MOORE

Liberty Church Pastor Preaching His Last Service Here Sunday

Reverend O. D. Moore, pastor of Liberty Baptist Church since October of 1961, has accepted a call to the First Baptist Church, Hastings, Florida.

He will take up his work there July 15.

Mr. Moore will preach his last services as acting pastor here on Sunday. He and his family plan to take a two week vacation in Texas before assuming new responsibilities.

Moving day has been set for sometime next week. The Moores will move their belongings to Hastings and then set out for a vacation.

Reverend Moore came to Appomatox from the First Baptist Church, Groveland, Florida, so he is actually returning to the state where he worked for more than seven years.

Under Mr. Moore's ministry here some 106 members have united with Liberty. More than $133,000 has come through the treasury. Of this amount, about $35,000 has been given to missions.

Mr. Moore, currently the president of the local Minister's group, is a member of the Centennial committee. He has taught a course in Christian Education for the University of Virginia for the past two years.

Mr. Moore is a graduate of Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, and the department of Pastoral Care, Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Mr. Moore said that Mrs. Moore, his daughter Eveann, and son Phil, wished to join in his expression of gratitude to the good people of Appomattox. Eveann, named "Miss Appomatox High" in March, is a June graduate of Appomatox High School. Phil is a rising junior in high school.

Supervisors Vote Funds To Support Sound-Light Program

Local Clubs Endorse Health Center As Real "Oportunity"

Five hundred dollars given to County Supervisors by the Sabin Oral Vaccine Clinic committee represents the first "breakthrough for prospects of a new Health and Community Center for Appomattox County.

Dr. C. Francis Clements, county Health Director, when contacted Tuesday, said that he and all the health workers of the county "appreciate the fact that the Polio Committee realizes the need for a Health Center."

The Sabin money is the result of donations made by citizens as they received doses of Sabin Oral Vaccine Oct. 1963, Jan. and March, 1964.

County Supervisors have been considering the matter of a new building to replace the present set-up on South Church Street. Harry Harvey, chairman of an eight-man committee appointed by the supervisors to investigate ways to finance the building said last week that the use of Hill-Burton funds (which would pay 45 per cent of the costs) represents "an opportunity we cannot afford to pass up."

Harvey said that it is his understanding that the State Health Department, currently paying rent for the Church St. location, would probably be more than willing to pay increased rent for the use of enlarged, modern facilities. And that increased rent may mean almost a "cost-free" building for the county, one that can be used as a civic meeting place, as well.

Dr. Clyde G. O'Brien, Dr. J. A. Mathews and Dr. Fratrick notified the Board of Supervisors in February that their services to the various clinics held at the center were definitely being hindered by lack of space and privacy at the present location.

The Womans Club of Appomattox, Jr. Woman's Club, Home Demonstration Agent, Appomattox Unit, American Cancer Society and many other organizations have written to the committee endorsing the new center. Among them, the Appomatox Ministerial Association which wrote, "The resolution (favoring the construction of a Health Center) was adopted after examining the very inadequate present Health Department facilities and consideration of the great value of a new Health Center in meeting the public health needs of the citizens of our county."

"The Ministerial Association is willing to express its honest conviction by virtue of that fact that it is vitally concerned with the physical as well as spiritual good health of all of our citizens; It is felt that the new center is urgently needed."

All letters received have endorsed the project with enthusiasm, with no negative replies, said Curry Harvey, committee chairman.

HD Schedule

Spout Spring HD Club—Wed., June 24, 1:30 p.m. with Mrs. D. P. Moon, hostess.

New Camp To Open Sunday

On Sunday, June 21, a new venture will begin in Appomattox County, a girls' camp on the farm of the Kermit Paulettes, Route 2. A number of little girls, ages 7 through 12, will begin a two-week camping session to be followed by three other camps.

Camp director is Miss Janice Ranson, neice of the Paulettes and a graduate of Westhampton College. She will have college age counselors to help her.

Farm pets, pony rides, nature hikes, and all kinds of other activities are planned for the young campers, including a tour of the Appomattox National Historical Park and a ride on the Hamilton's miniature Va. Central Railway. There is still room for more campers say the Paulettes as they make last minute preparations for their young guests. One of the latest buys—a young lamb named "Jolly"—who promises to become quite a pet of the camp, and possibly Timrek-Dell's mascot.

Timrek-Dell
